

For Immediate Release:
Thursday, April 13, 2017

Democratic Party endorses Leah Gold for Healdsburg City Council

SANTA ROSA, CA – The Sonoma County Democratic Party (SCDP), at its April 11 Central Committee meeting, voted to endorse Leah Gold for Healdsburg City Council in the June 6, 2017 General Election.

Leah Gold has lived in Healdsburg for 25 years and runs an educational consulting business. She previously served on the city council from 2000 to 2004, and was mayor in 2003. She directed the citizen's committee that developed Healdsburg's successful Urban Growth Boundary Initiative in 1996.

"Leah Gold has the solid experience Healdsburg needs," said SCDP chair Laurie Gallian. "Known for being accessible and responsive to residents' concerns, she understands the community and is a proven leader on issues such as affordable housing, the environment, and open space.

The Sonoma County Democratic Party (Sonoma County Democratic Central Committee / SCDP) is the official governing body of the Democratic Party in Sonoma County. The SCDP works in cooperation with the California Democratic Party (CDP) and the Democratic National Committee (DNC). For more information on the Sonoma County Democratic Party, visit www.sonomademocrats.org.

###

Media Contact: Laurie Gallian, Chair
Sonoma County Democratic Party
707-738-9847
lauriegallian@comcast.net
www.sonomademocrats.org